1.6.430

a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant

Theodore Cottingham at 11:41 AM. October 25, 2008

www.NewCovenant.me

1. Never needing flesh meat again.

2. Coming in glory I am, that you know nothing about -- that you have known nothing about, that you have no knowing about, in you, that has come about; but now all that changes for I have one who I am, now coming in glory, not a man of saying this, seemingly not, but seaming you into flesh bags not again being dependent upon flesh meat animals of -- I am giving you a new kingdom meat and meat for my house -- will be me. I am one and the same with my word, and I am my word, made whole now and heal and healing you -- many, now who come to me, be unafraid of me and seeing my words as me I am my word words and wording me to be full grown full strength me, unafraid of you or who think they are not me.

3. You who think you are not me -- think again, about these words, what I am saying giving you this day, today -- come into your salvation and know me, not a man of this world; but the next! And being unafraid of me, be unafraid of my words, being unafraid of my words write them, love them, be them unto salvation correctly now correctified and loving me to be correctly so corrected that correction will come in the meek and inherit the earth I do now, unafraid to be so, loving you as I do as I am my word made flesh in the earth and you see now, not a man of, but my words being whole healed healing agents now to heal my agents of me that are me that whole me, not again by man's standards of flesh eating flesh again and bouncing each other's head off of animalistic behaviors of notme-ville creating that which was me never intended for me of me or me again.

4. See what I have said moments so few in recording me correctly – addictively not, you are addicted to my words, not; you are addicted to love, not of the flesh "version" of me, but me being me real and true, yearning for "the flesh" no more, yearning for flesh-ville no more, coming out and being who I am in I am-ville correctly and knowing what I am, where I am, my power known throughout the nations loving giving all to be I am my love and I am power full and loving you all to be so meek and inherit the earth with me for I am meek and lowly, make of myself no reputation, do I? I do -- love you and making of myself no reputation in your eyes, my eyes see the glory of God for I have become it, I am and I am, not separate from it, that I am again in the earth walking, a man unafraid of you who think you are not me. Interconnected not -- we shall see, won't we? We shall see how I am afraid of me, not; we shall see a man walking who doesn't mind you.

5. But now walk, -ing me I do now in the earth unafraid and lovely loving you to be me, not flesh eating animals, animalistic of anymore, behavior toward each other where you chew each other's brain and brain waving patterns of not me, and -- suffice it not to be so, not; but suffice, not; but coming into me all I do now unafraid and I walk the earth, unborn not, but born into the kingdom of God righteous and holy my name. Yours -- will it be also? -- with me written in the lamb's book of life that you are writing your own book now, unafraid and knowing revelation and "little books" and eating them, writing them, knowing I am unafraid of the earth's atmosphere and that which reigns in unholiness, atmospheric pressure of not me never knowing again. Amen.

6. Go in peace and lovely love be, love my children, my parents who are thought to be parents'not, and unborn, and lovely'not, and toothless, brainless-thought, and thoughtless not be any more toward each other but loving me as I am, you, throughout the earth who walk and elbow each other with piercing words every day and each day not knowing who I am among you -- and now seeing -- stop that, that I am not; and start that that I am in recognition realization and revelation of who I am, where I am, coming in the earth now I am as a man child born women children unborn-ing, now into the kingdom of God heaven one and knowing it having it manifest in me birthing forth, from my chest, not; my head!

7. My HEAD aches no more but loving me loving my words, being them in the earth now frozen-attached no more to flesh be again ever.

8. I love you all this day and glorify my son I do in you who will be me one and holy forever his name your name my name is I am -- one. Reconciled to the world? No, reconciling me to myself? Reconciling I am that I am.

9. Thankfully and holy my name is forevermore one you who surrender to be so, sewed not again by the flesh but loving me all to be one with you all one in one -- I am one and unafraid of being so loved anymore by the lover who loves all complete to be -- me -- whole again! Reconciled lovely and home. Amen.

10. Dictated in front of the coffeeshop. It is now 11:53 AM. Thank you. Thank you for caring about these words, listening to them, knowing them in your heart that is onehood bringing about realhood that worships me in spirit and truth, not a man designed by man in man's sphere fear again. Amen. Thank you all.

11. I do -- this now. Love you all more than ever; loving you all, love each other more than me? Love me all as I have loved you.

12. This day and for evermore one be.

Amen

11:54 AM